PART I—Section 1Notifications relating to Non-Statutory Rules, Regulations and Orders and Resolutions issued by the Ministries of the Government of India (other than the Ministry of Defence) and by the Supreme Court*PRESIDENT'S SECRETARIATNew Delhi, the 18th July 1960*

No. 58-Pres./60.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Madhya Pradesh Police:—

Name of the officer and rank.

Shri Bhoor Singh,
Constable No. 532,
3rd Battalion,
Special Armed Force, Guna,
Madhya Pradesh. (Deceased).

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.

On the 5th March 1960 at 8.30 p.m. information was received at the anti-dacoity post Kharwaya, Police Station Pohri, District Shivpuri, that food was being prepared in village Chandpura for a gang of dacoits and that a member of the gang disguised in police uniform was waiting in a temple at the outskirts of the village to collect the food. Head Constable Ditiya, along with his section consisting of 1 Head Constable and 8 constables of the 3rd Battalion, Special Armed Force, immediately proceeded to village Chandpura which is at a distance of two miles. They reached the village at 9.30 p.m. and contacted the informer who led them to the temple where the dacoit was waiting.

The Section Commander drew up a plan of action to apprehend the dacoit. He divided his force into three parties, to cover all escape routes. The three parties were in position by 10 p.m. The night was dark and cloudy and there was a slight drizzle.

Constable Bhoor Singh's party was guarding the right flank of the temple which was the most likely escape route. After posting the three constables of his party, Constable Bhoor Singh crawled towards the temple to take up a position from where he could call upon the dacoit to surrender. Unfortunately a flash of lightning revealed his presence to the dacoit who immediately opened fire on him from close range and wounded him. Despite his injury, Constable Bhoor Singh exhorted his men to hold their ground, and fired back at the dacoit and was able to hit him. The dacoit then fired two more rounds at Bhoor Singh and made a dash towards the jungle. At the same time fire was opened on the police party from the jungle where the rest of the gang of dacoits was hiding. The police party fired on the running dacoit and repulsed the attempt of the gang to rescue him. When the other two police parties came up, they found that Bhoor Singh had died of his wounds, and a few yards further lay the body of the dacoit, who was identified as Prabhu Lohar, a member of Shikari's gang which was the remnant of the notorious gang of Amritlal of Shivpuri.

Constable Bhoor Singh showed high courage and devotion to duty when he took up an exposed position knowing fully well that a desperate and dangerous dacoit who was fully armed was hiding in the temple. Although seriously injured, he stood his ground courageously and prevented the dacoit's escape.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.
